Co-Op Task

Just like in class, I will put you into groups for the co-op task this week. I will create groups on Teams for you to communicate and share your work. The task is to create the next big new video game. You can create posters, videos, powerpoints or display it in any other way. You should include the following:

- Cover of the game
- List of characters
- Poster showing an example of what the game looks like
- How much does the game cost
- What consoles is it available on.
- Optional: Create a version of the game online.

General Knowledge Quiz

On a Wednesday I will post a quiz for you to complete for a bit of fun. Please do not post your answers on teams and no searching the internet for answers. You could also do the quiz with a member of your family.

Keep sending in your amazing posters, powerpoints and displays.
