It looks like . . .

It sounds like . . .

It smells like . . .

It tastes like ...

Here is an example

Summer and Winter

Summer feels like the burning sands of a busy beach between my toes, Winter feels like numb, freezing fingers beneath thick woolly gloves.

Summer looks like a beautiful blue swimming pool shimmering in the sunlight, Winter looks like an elderly lady trying to stay warm beside the crackling fire.

Summer sounds like the chirping of birds and laughter of children playing in their gardens,

Winter sounds like damp feet crunching through a blanket of white snow.

Summer smells like the delicious scent of sausages sizzling on a coal barbeque, Winter smells like fresh brown chestnuts roasting on an open fire.

Summer tastes like refreshing, cool ice cream slipping down my throat, Winter tastes like delicious, hot cocoa heating my body from head to toe.
