Codes of Practice

The Code of Practice for Social Service Workers is a list of statements that describes the standards of professional conduct and practice required of them.

The Code of Practice for Employers of Social Service Workers sets down the responsibilities of employers in the regulation of Social Service Workers. The code requires that employers adhere to the standards set out in their code, support their employees in meeting their code and take appropriate action when employees do not meet expected standards of conduct.

The codes are intended to reflect existing good practice and to inform parents/carers about the standards of conduct they can expect within the service.

All staff members, including supply staff, of Auchinairn Nursery have their own copy of the SSSC Codes of Practice.

All staff must sign to confirm that they have received a copy. It is the responsibility of each staff member to read and abide by the code.

The above will apply to any new member of staff.
